How can you protect the safety of victims of domestic violence?

Attend this special 1-hr training session and learn about housing rights granted under the Federal Fair Housing Act. Case managers, health care professionals, and others who provide essential services to victims of domestic violence are invited. To RSVP or register, contact the GCFHC at 228-396-4008 or admin@makeitfair.com.

Safe housing is a basic human right. Empower your clients with knowledge of their rights.
